Visa:

Students must apply for a student visa and are responsible for all associated fees. Embassy locations and required documents can be found at <http://www.usembassy.gov/>

Class registration:

Prior to arrival, student will choose the classes they would like to take during their semester. For fall semester, class lists will be available in late May and for spring semester, class lists will be available in late October. While we will do our best to accommodate all student class requests, priority will be given to degree-seeking students. Students will have the first 5 days of the semester to make changes to their schedule.

Students must take a minimum of 12 credit hours to maintain full time status per visa requirements. For reference, LL.M. students generally take 16 credit hours (4 classes) per semester and JD students take 5 classes per semester.

Grading:

Classes are graded on a 4 point scale:

A+	4.00	B	3.00	C-	1.67
A	4.00	B-	2.67	D+	1.33
A-	3.67	C+	2.33	D	1.00
B+	3.33	C	2.00	D-	0.67
				F	0.00

Exams:

Exams are generally taken over the last week of the semester and may be in-class, take home or a research paper. Exams may be open book or closed book and students have the option of handwriting the exam or using their computer.

Academic Calendar:

The academic calendar for the law school can be found at <http://www.law.illinois.edu/academic-calendar> with classes in the fall beginning in mid to late August and ending in mid-December. Classes in the spring begin in mid to late January and end in mid-May.

Fall students have the option of taking Law 500 LLM Legal Research & Writing during the 3 weeks before the regular semester. Spring students have a mandatory orientation on the Thursday before classes begin.
