

V Seminar Brazil x Norway – The green transformation and its regulatory impacts on the energy, shipping and port sectors

Organization: FGV Law School - Rio
The Norwegian Shipowners' Association Brazil (ABRAN)
Royal Norwegian General Consulate

Date: 27th September 2022 | 08.30 – 13.00

Local: Auditorium FGV – Rua Praia de Botafogo, 190 – 12<sup>º</sup> floor – Rio de Janeiro

Program: Speakers and program subject to change/confirmation

08.30 – 09.00 – Register and welcome coffee

09.00 – 10.00 – Opening session

Director FGV Law School Rio Prof. Sergio Guerra

President ABRAN Felipe Meira

Consul of Norway Mai Tonheim

Ambassador of Norway Odd Magne Rudd

Professor at FGV Law School Rio Danielle Rached - A historical view of the international climate change regime

10.00 – 10.20 – COFFEE BREAK

Panel of presentations: The challenges and opportunities driven by the green transformation in the energy, shipping and port sectors

10.20 | The green agenda and the role of SNPTA as an inducer of sustainable development of waterway transport and the Brazilian port sector – National Secretary of Ports and Waterways Transport Mario Povia

10.40 | The green transformation and growth prospects of the Brazilian waterway transport and port sector – Director General ANTAQ Eduardo Nery

11.00 | The impact of the green agenda on the Brazilian oil and gas industry – Director General ANP Adm. Rodolfo Saboia

11h20 | The green transformation and Petrobras' vision of the supply chain - Executive Manager Petrobras Marina Quinderé Barbosa

11h40 | Q&A and Roundtable

Moderation: Camila Mendes Vianna Cardoso – Partner at Kincaid Mendes Vianna and member of the Maritime and Port Law Commission of OAB-RJ and Paulo Jucá – Partner at FCDG Law Firm and Coordinator of the Port Regulation Commission of FGV Direito Rio